Dear Commissioner,

Enclosed is a Petition for an Extension of Time. I received your Office Action Summery through the US Postal service on June 10th.

The Office Action Summery was signed on 5/19/05, mailed on 5/25/05, and was in the hands of the post Office from 6/2/05 until forwarded and delivered to my new address June 10th.

I am unable to respond to your Office Action Summery within the short working time left. Actually, due to the circumstance listed above, it is uncertain as to when the shortened statutory period for reply will (would) end. Was it one month from the mailing post mark date or one month from the 5/19/05 signature? This question is rhetorical and need not be answered as it is no longer germane.

However, I do feel as a matter-of-course, small entities should generally be allowed a minimum of 60 days to reply to your Office Action Summaries. Most often we do not have additional staff nor the complete understanding of the complex methods and language as found in most patent guidelines and restrictions.

In fact, still at a loss concerning the exact format expected to reply to this Office Action Summery, I am awaiting to hear from the designated examiner. Had I initially been given a 60 day period, it would seem reasonable that I and my examiner would be able to communicate, therefore formulate the necessary reply, save your office some paperwork and save myself along with my wife, Carolyn, the fee for filing this Petition for an Extension of Time.

Sincerely,

Dennis Dewayne King
